VOLUNTEER/STUDENT PARTICIPATION

VOLUNTEER AT THE 2010 FREDERICK DOUGLASS LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

The help of volunteers is crucial to a successful summit. Volunteering at the Frederick Douglass Leadership Summit is an experience that will provide you with a perspective few ever get to witness.

Volunteers work in a variety of capacities, including registering attendees, staffing and securing the banquet hall, and assisting VIPs and attendees.

The Frederick Douglass Foundation encourages student volunteers to apply for credit from their school, and we are willing to help confirm the credit. Although volunteers are responsible for their travel and hotel expenses, we are happy to provide meals during the summit.

Volunteers must be available Wednesday, March 17 (evening) through Saturday, March 20 (evening).

This opportunity is not only for students—we encourage people of all ages and stages of their career to apply.
